DOODLE-DE-DOO

Do it to me, like you did to Marie,
Last Saturday night on the davenport couch.
First you caressed her, and then you undressed her
Last Saturday night on the davenport couch.

Roses are red and ready for pluckin'
I am sixteen and ready for high school.
Doodle-de-doo, doodle-de-doo
Doodle-de-doo, doodle-de-doo.

Showed it to me, her lily-white knee
Ane her doodle-de-doo, her doodle-de-doo.
She showed me her chest put the part I liked best
Was her doodle-de-doo, her doodle-de-doo.

Under the cover, she'll shake it and shake it.
With all her shaking it's a wonder she don't brak it
Doodle-de-doo, Doodle-de-doo
Doodle-de-doo, Doodle-de-doo.

I got this song from Roger who was in the Army,
and home on leave.

STACKOLEE

Stackolee was a good man;
Everybody he did love.
The pimps and whores all swore
by Stack--
By the everlasting stars above.
They all loed Stackolee.

What do you know about this?
What in 'ell do you know about that?
He killed old Billy Lyons
Over a damned old stateson hat.
Poor old Stackolee.

I got this song from one of Roy's Fraternity brothers at a party at the Delta Chi Fraternity house in Angola, Indiana.

THE BIG BLACK BULL

A big, black bull came down from
the mountain,

Houston, Sam Houston.

A big black bull came down from
the mountain,

Long time ago.

Chorus:

Long time ago.

Long time ago.

A big black bull came down from the mountain

Long time ago.

He spied a heifer in the pasture,

Houston, Sam Houston

He spied a heifer in the pasture,

Long time ago.

Keep your body wiggling in the same old way.
I'll be back to see you on my next pay day.
